

Transforming Perspectives

“Transforming Perspectives” is an interactive mural project with the goal of highlighting the positive and transformative aspects of aging and increasing awareness of senior issues and the resources available to help. Senior Connections and Genworth partnered with a local artist, Colleen Hall, to design the mural, which was inspired by surveys and interviews with more than 150 seniors in the community.