Chesterfield County Fire and EMS

<https://www.fire@chesterfield.gov>

P. O. Box 40, Chesterfield, VA 23832

Phone: 804-748-1360

The Chesterfield County Fire and EMS Department offers many resources to county residents other than our usual emergency medical services and fire protection. Below you will find several of those resources and programs:

Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)

CERT training is a free eight-week class program in basic disaster response skills. Participants will be trained how to help their families, friends and neighbors in the event of an emergency. Participants will learn about emergency preparedness, incident management, terrorism awareness, 911 communication, disaster psychology, fire safety & suppression, medical operations, and light duty search and rescue.

This is a volunteer organization; however, no volunteer commitment is required after completion.

Website: <https://www.chesterfield.gov/cert>

Email: CERT@chesterfield.gov

Phone: 804-751-2378

Citizen's Academy

The Chesterfield Fire & EMS Citizen's Academy is an eight-class program that gives the student a unique insight into what services your fire department provides and what it is like to be a firefighter with CF&EMS. Each session will provide you with how your fire department operates and show you what it means to be an All-Hazards Organization. The Academy is offered twice a year, beginning in April and October.

To register, call 804-748-1426 or email firemarshal@chesterfield.gov.

Ems Passport

Passport is a subscription program, when emergency ambulance transportation is required, that is designed to help eliminate out-of-pocket patient expenses and health insurance co-payments, It also offers protection against rising health care costs. Subscribers will not be responsible for any additional balances or fees, except as required by law or regulation, after insurance claims are processed. The subscription cost is $49/year for an individual and $79/year for a family.

If you need assistance on how to complete an application, please call 804-768-7524, and speak to one of our specialists.

<https://www.chesterfield.gov/573/EMS-Passport>

Smoke Alarm Program

Chesterfield county Fire and EMS understands the importance of having a working smoke alarm in your home. A working smoke alarm doubles your chance of survival in the event of a residential fire.

If you need a smoke alarm or need assistance to install an alarm or change the batteries, please call the Fire and Life Safety Division at 804-748-1426

Fire and Life Safety Education Programs

The Community Programs Office provides educational opportunities to the community to reduce the number and severity of fires and injuries. Each program focuses on a set of objectives that is relevant to the age group being taught from school age children to the older adult, to reduce known causes of fire, injury and fatalities.

If you have any questions, please call the Fire and Life Safety Division at 804-748-1426.

The Chesterfield Police department offers specific programs and services to county seniors through its Community Services Division.

Neighborhood Watch

This program unites residents within a community with the ultimate goal of reducing crime by being observant and reporting suspicious activity.

Senior citizen's Police Academy

County residents and business owners, age 55 or older, are given the opportunity to "go behind the badge" and get an inside look at the operations of the police department.

Home Security Assessments

County residents are encouraged to schedule a free assessment with a Crime Prevention Specialist who will provide recommendations on how to most effectively bolster the security of their homes.

Worship Watch

Worship leaders and law enforcement work together to maintain a safe welcoming environment through application of crime prevention best practices.

Crime Prevention Programs

Crime Prevention Specialists are available for group/organization presentations on topics including active shooter, frauds/scams, identity theft, personal safety, and shopping safety.

Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office

<https://www.chesterfield.gov/765/Sheriffs-Office>

Phone: 804-748-1261

Fax: 804-748-5808

The Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office brings resources to our community by providing the following community service programs:

Seniors in Touch Program

There are many seniors in our community that live alone and have no family in the area. The Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office Seniors in touch Program pairs deputies with qualifying county seniors to monitor their personal safety and well-being. Seniors receive visits and phone calls from Sheriff's Office personnel for updates on daily events, health concerns and personal needs. The program provides family members living out of the area the comfort of knowing someone is checking on their family member.

File of Life

The Sheriff's Office provides resource cards for this safety program to members of the community during various community service events. The File of Life Program provides a card and decal with medication information that is held inside a magnetic red vinyl sleeve marked File of Life which the user posts on the refrigerator or on the inside of their front door to aid first responders in saving their lives in the event of an emergency.

Yellow Dot Program

The Sheriff's Office provides resource decals for this safety program to community members during various community events. The program is designed to save valuable time in the event of a medical related incident. A reflective yellow decal is placed on a vehicle's window and a medical information sheet is placed in the glove box to help first responders in the event of an emergency.

Safe Exchange Zone

The Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office Safe Exchange Zone located at 9500 Courthouse Road, Chesterfield, VA 23832 is a designated area that can be used to conduct goods or custody exchanges in a safe area monitored by 24/7 video surveillance. The safe zone is well marked, well lit, and monitored by multiple video cameras that are continually monitored by our deputies. The safe zone is equipped with a panic button which activates a duress alarm as well as a visual strobe light. The Safe Exchange Zone is open to anyone and appointments are not necessary.

Senior Connections, The Capital Agency on Aging

<https://www.seniorconnections-va.org>

24 East Cary Street, Richmond, VA 23219

Phone: 804-343-3000

:Toll Free: 800 - 989-2286

Office Hours: Monday – Friday, 8:30am – 5:00pm

Senior Connections, The Capital Area Agency on Aging, is dedicated to helping individuals maintain quality of life and independence as they age. We place special emphasis on helping older adults who may be socially isolated and physically or economically at risk. Senior Connections serves as an advocacy and education organization focusing on issues that impact current and future retirees.

Finding Options and Resources

Our Agency will provide Information and Referrals for resources in our service area for older adults and caregivers. We are an entry point for connecting individuals with agencies and resources through the state's secure No Wrong Door System.

Our Care Coordination Program provides information, referral, assessment and coordination of services to older adults, caregivers and their families.

In addition, we have a Medicare and Insurance Counseling Program to assist Medicare beneficiaries, their families and caregivers in understanding Medicare coverage and other related health insurance benefits. Specialists with our Benefits Enrollment Center assist Medicare beneficiaries to apply for and understand benefits for which they may be eligible.

Support to Stay Home

We promote connections to help individuals live positive independent lives. Our programs include:

- Home Delivered Meals for those who are homebound;
- Friendship Cafes to allow older adults to socialize over a hot meal;
- TeleBridges to provide a friendly call two to five times per week;
- Respite and In-Home Services to provide temporary support;
- Money Management to help with check writing and reviewing bank statements;
- Care Transitions to work with the local hospitals to support a successful discharge
- Ride Connection to assist with transportation for medical appointments.

Assistance to Caregivers

Caregivers are provided assistance with obtaining information about available services. In addition, educational programs are provided to help with problem solving and decision making.

Advocacy and Support

The following programs allows us to advocate for older adults and caregivers. Our Public Guardians are advocates for the most vulnerable adults who lack capacity to make decisions. Senior Law Days are offered throughout the year to assist eligible older adults and persons with disabilities to prepare Wills, Durable Powers of Attorney and Advance Medical Directives. Our Long-Term Care Ombudsman protects and advocates for the rights of persons living in nursing and assisted living homes. The Virginia Senior Medicare Patrol educates Medicare beneficiaries, caregivers and their families to prevent, detect and report healthcare fraud, errors and abuse.

Getting Involved

We provide programs that allow older adults to become involved through volunteering or with our employment services. An older adult can provide additional support to children through our Foster Grandparent program as a volunteer mentor. The Retired and Senior Volunteer Program offers many opportunities with organizations throughout the area for volunteering and our internal Volunteer Program provides opportunities to support Agency programs. Our Senior Employment offers short term work experience and matches potential job candidates with other organizations.

Education and Information

Computer classes are offered to older adults wishing to learn the basics. Learning opportunities include Health and Wellness classes on fall prevention, chronic disease self-management and healthy habits for adults. We have Speakers who can speak on topics related to enhancing the quality of life for seniors and caregivers.

Please contact Senior Connections at 804-343-3000 or go to our website at seniorconnections-va.org to learn more about our services. You may also pick up a copy of our Engage at Any Age Newsletter (formerly Mature Life) in the FiftyPlus publications at over 300 locations in the Greater Richmond area.
